MADAM MUSIC CREATES A SCENE

Berkshire based record label Madam Music has relaunched a music website www.madammusic.com. Visitors can meet and interact with all the characters at Madam Music Records, read about their backgrounds, likes and dislikes, as well as keep up to date with the adventures and musings of Madam Music.

Madam Music is a sassy lead guitarist who has always dreamed of being a rock star herself, so runs Madam Music Records as an ethical and musician focused label. It's all about the Music! She spends her time jamming with her band, running the label and selling merchandise and artists music. Madam Music also runs courses for artists, managers and promoters wishing to learn how to market and sell music online.

Visit www.madammusic.com to discover the bizarre adventures of Madam Music and her crew, as well as new signings to her label such as 'The Sultans of Bling'. Pick up Music Industry hints and tips and share experiences from Madam Music's work, life and label.

"Madam Music is an identity and an interactive experience of music, art, stories and other creations. In April alone madammusic.com attracted more than 15,000 visitors, our best month ever!" Deborah Collier, MD Madam Music Ltd

At the www.madammusic.com online store visitors will find digital downloads, CDs and merchandise, including a range of stylish, high quality t-shirts.

To mark the launch, Madam Music commissioned a number of limited edition shirts; so visit the online store soon to avoid disappointment.
